STEREOPTICON USED IN YEUILL MEETINGS

Those present at the Yeuill Meetings in the Growers Warehouse were treated with a surprise last night when for the first time in the meeting the Stereopticon was used. The song, "The Holy City" which Mr. Yearley sang was illustrated by a series of highly colored pictures. These pictures thrown on a screen which hangs over the platform, were remarkable clear. Another surprise to some was the presence of the Maysville Band. They rendered several selections which were heartily applauded. Mr. Yeuill had for his subject, "The Cry of the Grouch". This proved to be but another way of saying that what David said viz., "No man cares for my soul." He emphasized the fact that there are many who assume the spirit of the man with a grouch, because they think no one is interested in them. He made a comparison of the interest Satan has in men and the interest Christ has in men. His appeal to the man who is indifferent to religion was both eloquent and powerful. He insisted that the purpose of these meetings was not to make church members but to help people to become Christians.

There were present people who had come from outlying districts to attend these meetings. The one coming the farthest was Dr. O'Hannon of Mt. Carmel.

Tonight, Mr. Yeuill will give his special illustrated chautauqua lecture on "Sunny Italy and Her Romances". Mr. Yearley will sing and the Maysville band will play.

The special woman's meeting will be held at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. This will be for women only. This being Mother's Day the meeting should be well attended. The theme is "The War of the Sexes."

At ten o'clock Sunday morning, in the tabernacle Mr. Yeuill will preach on the theme "Meet Me at the Fountain." Provisions are being made to accommodate an exceptionally large attendance on Sunday.

CHARITY DANCE

By the melodious strains of Goodwin's Trio some sixty or more couples enjoyed the Charity Dance given by the Settlement Club in the Masonic Temple Friday night. Many out of town visitors were present among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bush, Flemingsburg; Miss Ratliff, Owensboro; Miss Wilson, Miss Steele, Paris; Miss Hood, Flemingsburg; Miss Piper, Mayslick.

On account of the absence of Rev. John Barbour, who will deliver the baccalaureate address to the Vanceburg High School graduates Sunday night, there will be no Sunday preaching services at the First Presbyterian Church.

The Mason County Building Association Friday elected Mr. Ferdinand Hechinger as a director of that institution to succeed his father, the late Colonel David A. Hechinger.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK

At Minerva High School To Begin on Sunday, May 21--Successful Year's Work.

The commencement week of the Minerva Consolidated High School will begin on Sunday, May 21, when the commencement sermon will be preached by Dr. J. L. Clark, president of Kentucky Wesleyan College.

On the following Wednesday evening the dramatic and musical recital will be held. Mrs. J. A. Caldwell has had charge of the training of the young people for this event and success is sure to crown the effort which she has put forth.

Thursday evening the graduating class composed of Misses Rebecca Winter, Pauline Byar, Lillian O'Neil, Mary Slack and Messrs. John O'Neil and Glen Wallingford will receive diplomas. The class address will be by Dr. W. E. Mitchell of Georgetown College. The Minerva school under Prof. J. A. Caldwell has had one of the most successful years of work ever in its history.

NOTICE

On account of repairs to Limestone Bridge connecting the Fifth and Sixth Wards with the West End of the city the bridge will be closed to traffic all next week. Commencing Monday, May 15th.

J. WESLEY LEE, Mayor.

DR. BLODGETT OF CINCINNATI TO ADDRESS OLD SETTLERS

Rev. C. W. Blodgett, one of Cincinnati's leading pastors, an orator of national-wide reputation, a lecturer second to none, a general favorite for big Fourth of July celebrations, Grand Army of the Republic conventions, and campmeetings, has been engaged to deliver the principal address at the Old Settlers' Reunion and picnic at Rugles Campgrounds on the Fourth of July. The management feels that with such a distinguished orator to speak and the premier Blue Grass Concert band to furnish the music, the celebration later, that this will be a bandside other attractions to be another year for the old settlers.

The members of the Holy Name Society will meet on Sunday morning, May 14th, on Limestone street at 7:45 o'clock.

JAMES M. COLLINS, President.
